

DANCE

Degree Options:

- Associate of Science
- Associate of Arts

Program Description:

The field of dance is broad based and offers many job opportunities, not just in the performance area. A dance major could find employment as a performer, teacher, choreographer, dance therapist, movement notator, dance historian, critic, writer, dance medicine assistant, trainer, nurse and doctor. For further information contact the dance department advisor.

All dance course must be taken consecutively. Listed below are the required classes for dance scholarship students and dance majors. Dance Scholarship recipients and Company Members must maintain a 2.5 GPA in their non-dance subjects, as well as their dance courses, and put in two hours of service in the department per week.
